

Colleton River Club®

Mike O'Regan has been named Director of Racquet Sports and Bocce Ball at Colleton River Club. He has been instrumental in building Colleton River Club's Tennis Program over the last eight years as a contractor along with his business partner, Gavin Cox. They are co-owners of the Tennis Club of the Low Country. He now has joined the community in a full time capacity.

A graduate of the College of Wooster, where he played tennis for this nationally ranked NCAA program. He brings with him twenty-six years of teaching experience. Mike has been a certified tennis professional since 2001, and recently received his professional certification in pickleball.

Colleton River Club is located in Bluffton, SC, 1.5 miles from the bridge to Hilton Head Island. This member-owned private golf community features 705 properties situated on a peninsula surrounded by 7 miles of scenic shoreline. The award-winning, signature 18-hole courses by Jack Nicklaus and Pete Dye each have their own unique and distinguished Clubhouses. Additional Community amenities include an Augusta-style par 3 course, the Stan Smith Tennis and Swim center with 6 Har-Tru courts and a Jr. Olympic Pool, as well as a large and modern fitness center, and a community dock with deep water access, and a state-of-the-art golf practice park and a Learning Center unrivaled in the Southeast.
